

Five booked at Tooting

WHILE Wycombe Wanderers were cruising through their F.A. Cup third qualifying round tie at Chesham on Saturday, several other Rothmans Isthmian League were involved in harder struggles.

Five players were booked in the match at Tooting where the home club met Southern Leaguers Wealdstone. The man in charge was Downley referee Bill Cleere who put the names of Tooting's Juneman and Howell into his book alongside Wealdstone's Burgess, Fulton and Duck.

The man who decided the outcome at Sandy Lane was former Wanderers forward Tony Amos.

One of the tightest matches of the round was Leatherhead's home encounter with Dagenham. Both sides are going well in the league at present and the match predictably ended drawn, 0-0.

Sutton United hit five goals against Erith and Belvedere, Erith replying once while the Hertfordshire local derby between Hitchin Town and St. Albans City resulted in a 2-1 verdict for Hitchin.

One Rothmans Isthmian League Division One "casualty" in the third round were Leytonstone. They lost out 0-1 at home to Southern League, Premier Division club Romford. Wokingham, who play in Division Two, did well to hold the powerful Wimbledon side to 2-0 away.
